State Legislature Names Six to Budget Committee

SACRAMENTO, June 15 (UP)—The legislature placed the state budget—and its hopes of early adjournment—in the hands of a six-man committee today. The Conference committee on the budget was named after the assembly refused to go along on budget changes with the senate. The upper house added about $7 million to the budget total approved by the assembly and re-arranged at least a half-dozen items.

Mary Jo Graefe Is AOP Delegate

Mary Jo Graefe, president of the local active chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi, will leave San Jose Thursday, June 23, for Swampscott, Mass. The international sorority will hold its biennial convention at New Ocean house, Swampscott.

The convention, in session June 26-July 2, will be attended by delegates from 49 active and 84 alumnae chapters from the United States and Canada.

Mrs. Verne W. McKinney, Los Angeles, national president, will preside. Mrs. Philip W. Wolf, third vice president and philanthropic chairman, will report on the Frontier Nursing service in Kentucky and the child care and feeding center in St. Nazaire, France.

Highlights of the convention will be election and installation of officers and presentation of awards for achievements and scholarship.

Sightseeing trips to nearby spots of historical interest will be conducted for the delegates.

Caps, Gowns Ready

Student and faculty caps and gowns will be in the Spartan Book store today and tomorrow. Please bring ticket stubs and pick up caps and gowns as soon as possible.

State Officials Zone New SJSC Buildings

Plans for the proposed expansion of San Jose State college took a definite step forward yesterday with the announcement by state departments of planning and architecture that locations for some of the buildings to be erected on college owned property have been chosen.

Charles W. Bursch, chief of the school planning division of the state Department of Education, and Tom Merritt and Stanley Willard of the state Department of Architecture, visited the campus yesterday and presented their recommendations for location of the Speech department building, and the Chapel, and the Union.

The Speech building will be erected to the north of the present business office, between the present Union and the high school buildings. The site of the Chapel will be between the Men's gym and the Police School offices on the San Carlos turf.

The new Union will be built straddling San Antonio street, which will be closed off when building begins. San Antonio street will be closed as far east as Eighth street. Seventh and Eighth streets will be closed from San Fernando to San Carlos streets. All of this area will be included on the new campus.

Bids for construction of the new Women's gym will be advertised for beginning Monday. Building will begin when an acceptable bid has been received.

Seniors To Rehearse

Seniors are reminded that there will be a Baccalaureate rehearsal this morning at 11:30 in Morris Dailey auditorium. It is essential that all seniors be present.

Students who have class conflicts, will be excused, said George Link, class president.

SJSC Spartan Shield To Form During Fall

Fall quarter at San Jose State college will mark the birth of Spartan Shield, sophomore men's service organization, comparable to Spartan Spears. Formation of the new campus group has been approved by the college administration and Student Council. Constitution of the Spartan Shield also has received the stamp of approval from the council.

Adviser for the male society is Mr. Peter M. Kristovich, assistant professor of police. Membership is limited to 20 students who have been outstanding in service at the college during their freshman year.

Active members will be selected from those who have sophomore standing during the period of their membership. Selection of membership will be based on interest and participation in college activities and average scholarship.

Purpose of the sophomore organization is to further the spirit of service in the interests of the college and community. Charter members are Richard Barrick, George Bloom, Clarence Brazee, Harold Ely, John Giacomazzi, Tom Harney, John Jacobsen, Clyde Ruthledge, Dale Uria, James Wilkinson, and Ben Winklemen.

Blue Key, San Jose State college honor service fraternity, will foster the organization at the beginning of the quarter. Dick Knox, Blue Key member, was instrumental in creating the Spartan Shield and writing the constitution.

Glenn Stewart Calls Last Regular Meet Of Rally Committee

The last meeting of the quarter of the Rally committee will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in room 20, Chairman Glenn Stewart announced. It is imperative that all committee heads of this and last year's Rally committee attend, he said.

Principal topic of the meeting will be discussion of plans for the football games preceding the opening of school in the fall, Stewart said.

"There will be an organized rooting section on tab for both the Stanford and Santa Clara games as well as the first Friday night game against Pepperdine college. Card stunts and all of the regular pre-game and half-time activities have been planned for the Santa Clara game," he said.

"Since school will not be in session," Stewart said, "the cooperation of the entire student body for these games will be greatly appreciated by the Rally committee."

Also at tonight's meeting, certificates of merit will be awarded to members who have served on the committee during the past year, Stewart added.

Court Recommends O'Connor's Removal From State College

The Student Court deliberated for over an hour yesterday before recommending to the college Personnel Committee that James O'Connor be dismissed from the college for three quarters.

O'Connor went before the court at 4 p.m. to defend himself from charges of conduct detrimental to the best interests of the student body.

One hour and twenty minutes later, the trial closed and the court room was cleared while the court decided the case on the evidence presented.

O'Connor was defended by his brother, Dave O'Connor. Only court officers, the defendant and counsel, and witnesses were allowed in the closed session.

Tuesday, the court found Glen Lovell, Jack Monroe, and John E. Spoon guilty of conduct detrimental to the best interests of the student body. Charges of drunk and disorderly conduct and destruction of property were changed to charges of conduct detrimental to the best interests of the student body.

Togo Nishiuri Wins A Phi O Scholarship

Togo Nishiuri, a Mountain View high school student, won the annual $100 scholarship given by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, according to Dick Hoffman, publicity chairman.

The 18-year-old Nishiuri is a football and track participant, and a member of the California Scholarship federation. Newell Johnson, past president of A Phi O, will make the award tomorrow night at high school graduation exercises.

The scholarship committee which approved the award is composed of Dean Paul Pitman, Dean Helen Dimmick, Dr. Carl Rich, Dr. H. Murray Clark, Mr. Edward Clements, and Mr. Newell Johnson.

Bids Taken at Door

Students attending the Senior Ball Saturday night must present their bids at the door, stated George Link, senior class president, yesterday. Students who have not bought bids will not be able to purchase them at the door or gain entrance to the ball in any other way.

According to Link there will be guards present to discourage any and all gate crashers.

Speech Department Adds Summer Correction Work

For the first time in the history of the Speech and Drama department a symposium in speech correction will be offered during the six-week Summer Session, the department reported.

Dr. Margaret C. Letzter, professor of speech, will direct the course, which will cover recent theories, techniques, and methods in correcting stuttering, cerebral palsy, cleft palate, foreign dialect, and hearing and voice problems.

Catalogued as Speech 100, it will be a three unit course offered at 1 p.m. daily from July 5-Aug. 12. More than 20 outstanding men and women in the speech correction field will be guest lecturers.

These include Dr. Hayes A. Newby, assistant professor of speech and drama and of the speech and hearing clinic at Stanford university; Dr. Virgil Anderson of Stanford, president of the Western Speech association; Dr. Paul J. Moses from the Stanford Medical school.

Dr. Peter Cohen, supervisor of the cerebral palsy program for the state; Dr. Albert D. Davis, plastic surgeon; Dr. Robert West from the University of Wisconsin; Dr. Leon Lassus, of San Francisco State college; Dr. Florence Henderson, clinical psychologist; and Dr. Charles S. Lipp, University of California, College of Dentistry.

This Summer Session speech clinic will give students an opportunity to observe speech work, confer with instructors on special problems, take part in workshops on speech, and meet outstanding people in each field, Dr. Letzter says.

CPS President To Speak At Baccalaureate Service

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, president of College of Puget Sound at Tacoma, Wash., will deliver the sermon at Baccalaureate service, 3 p.m., Sunday, in Morris Dailey auditorium. Dr. Thompson's subject will be, "Reaching Through the Years."

A procession of faculty members and seniors in caps and gowns will precede the service, which will open with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." Rev. James H. Strayer, pastor of Calvary Methodist Church, San Jose, will deliver the invocation and benediction.

Musical numbers on the program will include "Largo" by Dvorak, played by the brass choir; the adagio movement of Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 3, played by the college symphony orchestra; and three selections by the cappella choir.

Following the benediction the choir will sing "Sevenfold Amen" and "Hail, Spartans, Hail." Services will close with a recessional. Before and after services Betty Dilg Ketman will play informally the tower chimes.

Workers Must File For Summer Jobs

Men students desiring part-time employment while attending Summer Session must file special application in the Dean of Men's office now.

Miss Florence Kellenberger, of part-time employment for men, said that students who do not file the special application may experience difficulty in obtaining part-time jobs.

On the job training for life insurance sales work is now available for any Business Administration major who might be interested. Contact the placement office.

Teaching Opportunities

There are now opportunities open for teachers of the elementary grade, who are willing to teach outside the U.S. The openings are in Puerto Rico where living expenses are extremely low at the present time. Pay for the nine month period is to $2000.

Jobs for Nurses

Expansion of California's mental health program requires the addition of more than twenty psychiatric nurses to the staff of the Langley Porter clinic in San Francisco, according to Mrs. Katherine Steele, director of nursing services for the State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Candidates for appointment as junior psychiatric nurse and psychiatric nurse are to be qualified in a nationwide examination to be conducted by the California State Personnel board July 28. Applications are being accepted through July 7, 1949.

Fish and Game Wardens

Fish and game wardens are to be appointed at a $268 monthly salary to fill positions throughout the state in the near future, the California State Fish and Game commission announced recently. Present plans call for a civil service examination July 23. Applications are being accepted until July 2. Minimum requirements call for a background of at least two years of either civil or military law enforcement work.

Details about examinations and application forms may be obtained from the State Personnel board office, 107 State Building, San Francisco.

Cops Make Stocks From COP Goals

The cagey Tigers of COP have at last proved to be of aid to Spartan students!

Those confining stocks used by Chi Pi Sigma police fraternity during Spardi Gras reportedly were fashioned from the goalposts torn down after last year's 14-7 triumph in Lodi.

Just how the fraternity came into possession of the posts is not known, but many reluctant students spent a few anxious moments in the penal stocks.

Members and faculty guests enjoyed a meal of hot dogs, salad, and cokes following the installation.

Kid Desperadoes Sought by Posse

VAN NUYS, Cal., June 15. — (UP) — A mounted posse rode deep into the mountains today on a grim hunt for two armed horse thieves, one age 11, who have sworn they won't be taken alive.

The junior high school desperadoes robbed a hardware store, then galloped into the canyons in movie cowboy style on horses from a Sunland stable.

Police said they charged back into town last night, robbed a home and picked up three rifles and a supply of ammunition.

WAA Spring Spread Has Large Turnout; GPB Wins Ball Game

A large turnout attended the WAA "Spring Spread" held Tuesday afternoon near the Women's gym.

In the feature softball game of the afternoon, Gamma Phi Beta downed the Woodpeckers 6-5 in a see-saw battle.

Game Plays Off Tie

The four inning game pushed Gamma Phi into a first place tie with the Woodpeckers. Tuesday's game was the play-off of a tie game incurred during the WAA softball tournament. Both teams lost only one game during the season.

Hamburgers, beans, cokes, ice cream, coffee, and trimmings composed the menu for the evening's "Spread." Beverly Devin was in charge of the food committee.

After dinner, a bunch of cowpokes wandered on the scene with musical instruments and played a few tunes for the gals. Hiding under western hats were Barbara Albaugh, ukelele; Marilyn Hines, ukelele; Ruthie Laine, ukelele; Dot Riggan, harmonica; Jeanne "Bones" Lathrop, washboard and whisk broom player; Mary "Hayseed" Hooton, ukelele and tambourine; Irma Tourtellott, ukelele; and Marianne Gothard, guitarist.

Some of the pieces the girls played were "Five Feet Two," "Someone's Been Lovin' You," "Just Because," and a special song for the seniors.

Point Awards Given

Awards for 500 and 1500 points were made by Jo Ingraham, recorder of points for WAA, at this time, to girls who had earned them.

Marianne Gothard was chairman of entertainment, and Bonnie Myers was in charge of softball games.

Empty All Lockers By End Of Quarter

A warning that all lockers should be cleaned out and left unlocked at the end of the present quarter was made today by Byron Bollinger, supervisor of buildings and grounds.

"We will be forced to saw off locks on lockers after Summer Session," Bollinger said. "If anything of value is left in a locker, it will be turned over to Lost and Found."

Bollinger said that 378 more lockers will be available next fall. They are already here, but have not been assembled yet. Some will be placed in the basement and the rest on the first floor of the Science building. With the addition of the new lockers, Bollinger believes the present shortage will be substantially eased.

Nine Out Of Ten Pass English Final

Nine out of ten students, who took the recent comprehensive examination in English, passed, according to Dr. Raymond W. Barry, English department head.

All English majors are required to pass this examination before they can receive their degrees, Dr. Barry said. The examination, which is a three-hour essay type test, is given quarterly. English majors usually take the test two quarters before graduation so that in event they fail they will have other opportunities to pass before graduation.

Seven who took the comprehensive exam this time are graduating seniors. They are: John A. Arioto, Harold C. Brown, Eula B. Fitch, Carolyn M. Hackman, Eleanor R. Hinds, Michael D. Overhulse, and Marietta L. Zaro.

GEORGE MATTOS — San Jose State's pole vaulter deluxe who'll face the top sky climbers in the nation at Friday and Saturday's NCAA track gathering in Los Angeles. Mattos holds the San Jose school record with a leap of 14 ft. 1 1/4 in.

SPARTAN SKY SCRAPER

George Mattos Seeks 15 Foot Mark in Pole Vault

By CARL UNDERWOOD

In 1943 George Mattos had never pole vaulted over 9 ft., but now, just six years later, he holds the San Jose State record of 14 ft. 1 1/4 in. and is just getting started. Mattos, who is only a 19-year-old sophomore, has been climbing higher and higher each year, and before he graduates from Washington Square may be flirting with 15 ft., a mark which no other vaulter except world record holder Cornelius Warmerdam has attained.

A native of Pacific Grove, Calif., Mattos got his start in track at Pacific Grove high school in 1943. He did little vaulting until his sophomore year when he cleared 11 ft. The next spring he upped this mark to 12 ft. and followed by adding another foot to his record as a senior.

This 13 ft. vault came in the Pacific A.A.U. meet in which he defeated several collegiate sky climbers. He had previously won the Northern California Scholastic meet, and took first place honors in the California Inter-scholastic Federation meet, whipping all the best high school athletes in the state.

Hasty Ascent Skyward

In 1947 Mattos continued his hasty ascent skyward by clearing 13 ft. 6 in. as a freshman at San Jose. Unofficially he soared 13 ft. 11 in. shortly after typing for second with several varsity competitors, again at the Pacific A.A.U. meet. He also copped top spot in the junior college division of the California Relays with a 13 ft. 2 in. effort. Never one to remain in a rut, Mattos hit 13 ft. 10 1/2 in., to shade the former school record of 13 ft. 10 in. against the Olympic Club in his first meet this season. Since then he has climbed to 14 ft. 1 1/2 in. and hit his all-time best mark of 14 ft. 1 1/4 in., this time in the California Relays collegiate division.

Mattos seems to vault well in the Modesto pit under any circumstances. Last year he was forced to borrow a University of California pole since his own had not arrived at the meet in time. Finally, ex-Spartan vaulter Howard Overhouse rushed in with Mattos' pole in the middle of the competition. The bamboo stick then proceeded to break as Mattos took his first vault, so he shifted back to the borrowed U. C. pole and the event.

Forgets Spikes

His most strenuous and perhaps disappointing weekend came recently when he competed in the Compton Relays Friday night and flew up to Berkeley for the P.A. meet the following afternoon. After leaving for Los Angeles, Mattos discovered he had forgotten his track shoes, and had to don a pair of old spikes which were about to fall apart.

Nevertheless he narrowly missed 14 ft. at Compton, but the next day his beat up shoes and the terrific heat of more than 100 degrees resulted in only a 13 ft. effort.

Since early in the season, Mattos has been locked in a nip-and-tuck dual with Bobby Smith, another sophomore vaulter from San Diego State. Smith, whose best mark is a mere 3/4 of an inch higher than Mattos', holds a slight advantage at the present time. He has defeated his Spartan opponent twice while Mattos came out on top a single time. A dead heat for first place resulted in still another dual.

Both sky climbers should end up near the top of the pack Saturday in the National Collegiate finals in Los Angeles, and again at the National AAU meet the following week, they should hold their own with the nation's best.

Mattos is majoring in music at San Jose, and divides his talents between vaulting and playing the clarinet. His plans after graduation are at present uncertain, but if he can handle his clarinet as well as a bamboo pole, he will go a long way in the music profession.

Although he is but 5 ft. 10 in. tall, somewhat short compared to outstanding vaulters in past years, Mattos is equipped with a pair of strong arms and considerable speed, two vital assets which contribute to good vaulting.

When the 1952 Olympics roll around in Helsinki, Finland, don't be surprised to see the name of George Mattos wearing the red, white, and blue uniform of the U.S.

Defending Champion Ridgerunners Dethroned As Softball Play Ends

By CLIFF MINNERS

Chuck Hughes and Bob Pifferini, football teammates for the past two seasons, combined talents on the softball diamond yesterday to give the Happy Swatters a 3-0 victory over the Ridgerunners in the championship game of the "Sudden Death" tournament.

A large crowd gathered on the sidelines of the San Carlos field to watch the excellently-played contest.

Pifferini stepped into one of Bud Castle's fast balls in the first inning and parked it over the left field fence, driving in two runs.

That was all the margin Hughes needed as he threw a brilliant one-hit game, and set 12 Ridgerunners down on strikeouts. His shutout was seriously threatened only in the 4th inning, when the Runners' Len Smith walked and went to third on a skillfully-placed bunt by Vico Bondietti. Vico then stole second, but the runners were left stranded as Hughes bore down to strike out the next two batters.

The Swatters' final tally came on successive doubles by Hughes and Bob Hagen in the second inning. Castle settled down to shut out the victors, the rest of the game, and sent seven batters down swinging.

The winners and runners-up were presented medals after the game by Ted Mumby, director of the tournament.
